

WAKEFIELD CATHEDRAL

Brief Description

Wakefield Cathedral stands in the heart of the city and has important fabric dating from the 12th century and of particular importance are the medieval timber ceilings and choir stalls. The project to re-order and extend the Cathedral has been in planning for many years with the aim of providing a flexible, welcoming and responsive building which respects the historic fabric and enables the Cathedral to move forward.

Project Details

Location: Wakefield
Client: Wakefield Cathedral Dean & Chapter
Project Value: £5m
M&E Project Value: £800k
Completion Date: 2013

Professional Services

Martin Thomas Associates are appointed to undertake the mechanical and electrical consultancy for the project.

The works include a new lime concrete floor incorporating under floor heating, new boiler installation, complete rewiring, new fire & intruder alarms, new PA/AV system and lighting installation in the Nave.

Services Include

Services distribution
Lighting and Emergency Lighting
Small power and communications
Audio/Visual system
Fire & intruder alarm
Heating & boiler installation
Underfloor heating in the nave